PAGE RECEIVES BAPTISM OF FIRE

New Ambassador to England Makes Debut as After-Dinner Speaker.

GUEST AT GREAT BANQUET

Eminent Britishers and Americans Give Him Warm Welcome to London.

London, June 6 .- Walter Hines Page. the new American ambassador to the Court of St. James, to-night received speaker in London at a welcoming banquet given in his honor by the Pilgrims Society. Field Marshal Earl Roberts presided, and had as supporters at the head of the table Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary; the Earl of Halsburg, former Lord Chancellor; the Earl of Aberdeen, Lord Lieutenant lreland, and Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland. Three hundred and fifty Pilgrims. among them many prominent Britishers and representative Americans, attend-ed. Mr. Page was welcomed in speeches by Earl Roberts and Sir Edward Grey, the latter being given a great ovation when he was referred to by other speakers as "the peacemaker of Eu-

Reference to Kniser Applauded. rice Collier, the author, who, after Page, was the principal American speaker, said the two greatest peace-makers of Europe were Earl Roberts, who had made peace from Kyber Pass to Capetown, and Sir Edward Grey, who "took in hand the hornet's nest of the Balkans in this year of grace." His reference to Emperor William as "that great and strong man who is the true friend of England," was received with ed when he rose. "The time is long past when there was need, if ever there was need, of makeshifts or makebelieves in our intercourse." said Mr. Page. "Surely it argues well for the spread of justice and fair dealing and for the firmer establishment of the peace of the world that the two naions of the English-speaking folk peak frankly to one another in our ealings. Blood answers to blood, and our fundamental qualities of manhood history can show none other such— these two kindred nations, one on each side of the well-plowed sea that unites them, standing at the end of a century of peace, liberty-loving as of old, and forward-looking, confident of the bounds of freedom, and yet regarding government as a living and ever chang-ing instrument of human progress, made by man for man's advancement and not for the mere maintenance of any political creed. This is an augury for the progress of the world that shames all structures of society where cessors as ambassadors to the cof St. James, whom he named, James, whom he named, was received, as was also his description of James Bryce, as persona grata to the United States and persona grata to the whole American people. Page spoke of America's mission mocracy, "which in every part of the world has the same large aims to keep men free and preserve the peace of

His Dual Capacity The ambassador of the United States this country has a dual capacity: that of ambassador and that of honored guest and friend," said Sir Edward Grey. "If he comes to us with proposals from his government with the idea of making more remote any appeal to blind force he will find in this peal to blind force he will find in this and in the British government.

interest or by any desire of securing an advantage in disarming or placing at a disadvantage any other nation."

In conclusion, the Foreign Secretary said.

"As great as the friendly feeling between us is to-day, that friendly feeling will. I trust, still grow and grow, After all, to whatever degree it develops, however strong it becomes, I believe it is their wish, and I am sure it is ours, that the friendly feeling between the two countries, though it may serve as an example to all nations, should never be a menace to any."

Garment Workers Favor Strike.

Garment Workers Favor Strike.

Children's Favor Strike.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 6.—Representatives of 8,000 men and women, employed in the city, voted to-night to strike. Workers say and that 160 shops in this city will be affected.

One of the principal causes is declared to be the subconstracting system. Instead of the subconstracting system. Instead of the subconstracting system. Instead of the subconstracting system in the factories, it was said, subcontractors take work to their norms or "sweat shops." As great as the friendly feeling be-

"Berry's for Clothes."

This is Straw Hat Time. Wing your way to the headquarters where your hat will be fitted to your head, your face and your pocket.

All styles at all prices from a knockabout at $1.50 to a luxurious Panama at $10.

Hats for children, too. Panamas for women.

WORRY TO ACTRESS

to Charles Nelson Bell, a New York importer, a' Apple Jack Farm here on Friday, June 13, 1913, at the thirteenth hour of the day.

It is coincidence only that the figures 13 appear so often, but after discovering the fact. Miss Ritchie decided, she says, to prove her disbelief in hoodoos and stick to her original plan. The date was set because on that day Miss Ritchie's adopted daughter, Miss Marian King, will return from the Villa Marian King, will return from the Villa that the words "equal protection of the laws" used in the amendment referred to persons and not to and Mrs. Jacob B. Pultz, of Philadelphia; her sister, Mrs. Charles Boyd; the groom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, will witness the ceremony.

Miss Ritchie to-night. "It's to be a quiet family wedding, but, of course, I shall dress brideish. I don't know just who I'll invite, but I'll do it informally. I'm afraid I shall blush when I go to the town clerk to get my license, for I'll have to say I'm thirty-six years.

peal to blind force he will find in this country and in the British government a ready response. If there should be a ready response. If there should be a ready response. If there should be wolent and Protective Order of Elks brought its convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon with the social feativities concluding to-night tis convention to an end here this afternoon.

In turiled States to grant equal protection in its jurisdiction.

Interest in the Japanese American land ownership controversy is unabated to with a big ball at Lumina. Wrightsvilled concluding to-night with a big ball at Lumina. Wrightsvilled concluding to-night with a big ba Oil Men Elect Officers.

Atlanta, Ga., June 6.—R. W. Rushton, of Savannah, Ga., was elected president of the Interstate Association of Oil Mill Superintendents at the close of the fourth annual convention here to-day. Other officers elected were: Vice-President. O. H. Wells. South Carolina; secretary-treasurer. Ben S. Ashley. The following were elected State vice-presidents: N. B. Moore, North Carolina; Fred Strickland, South Carolina; J. A. Robinson, Georgia.

knockabout at $1.50 to a the American negotiators, was read at the Cabinet meeting to-day, and later was the subject of a conference between President Wilson and John Bassett Moore, Counsellor of the State De-

Consideration of the note by the Cab-inet was deferred until the return of Secretary Bryan, who left early in the afternoon for Pittsburgh, to attend a farewell dinner in honor of the new No time like bargain time!

50c imported lisle-thread and 50c domestic silk Socks—

33½c each. arguments, presented with sidelights disclosing internal political conditions $1.50 standard silk Socks—

$1.00 now.

disclosing internal political conditions in Japan, which are powerfully influencing the Japanese Foreign Office in the conduct of the negotiations.

Press dispatches from Tokyo outlining the contents of the Japanese contents of the Japanese contents.

communication were received with great interest here.

Officials who have examined into the subject have reached the conclusion that the Japanese Foreign Office has shown a remarkable knowledge of American constitutional law, and that the legal lights of the State Department will be taxed to the utmost to rebut the arguments presented.

The assertion that the California law violates the spirit of the existing treaty by discriminating against the Japanese, however, is looked upon as a slight retreat from the original broad statement, that the Adele Ritchie to Be Married on Friday, June 13, 1913, at Thirteenth Hour of Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Greenwich. Conn., June 6.—Adele Greenwich. Conn., June 6.—Adele de extended to farm lands, which alone are covered by the California laws. are covered by the California laws

Officials say the suggestion that the alien land legislation is in violation of

It also declares that the new bill

CHINDA BELIEVES

chis spirit that has so eminently characterized the American people and has also invariably guided the course of action taken by Japan in dealing with questions of international moment. It is in this spirit alone that those questions could be successfully adjusted, to the true and lasting satisfaction of all parties. It should be the noble endeavor of every patriotic man in both countries to direct his attention to an amicable solution on such a basis of amicable solution on such a basis of any probelm that may confront us in our intercourse, and to transmit to our our intercourse, and to transmit to our posterily the unspotted record of our mutual good understanding bequeatied to us by our forefathers. Our records form part of our dear and valued assets. It should be preserved, It should be amplified and extended to all ages to come.

"Our two nations, bound by such auspicious tradition and guided by the same aims and the same aspirations to contribute to the pacific progress of the world, should forever remain good and trusted neighbors. And I feel, gentlemen, that my humble labors in this direction find ready co-operation and encouragement at the hands of your great President, as well as of your great President, as well as of your renowned Secretary of State, Mr. Bryan, and your worthy representative to Japan, Mr. Guthrie, who honor us by their presence to-night. I am sure that the expressions of friendships voiced by such distinguished leaders of American politics cannot fail to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of all thinking men on both sides of the Pacific."

Wants Homes for Ambassadors. Our two nations, bound by such au

Wants Homes for Ambassadors. Secretary Bryan was almost breathless when he entered, but plunged almost immediately into his speech, from which he digressed after he had "freed himself from the bonds of manuscript" to declare that he "was not an advocate of increasing ambassadors" salaries, but I am in favor of purchasing homes for them, because it is democratic, and because we can fix their Wants Homes for Ambassadors.

JAPAN FURNISHES PROBLEM TO SOLVE

State Department Taxed to Find Answers for Tokyo's Arguments.

LATEST NOTE DISCUSSED
President Wilson and Cabinet Confer Over Rejoinder to Note.

Washington, June 6.—Japan's latest note in regard to the Calitornia land legislation, admittedly furnishing problems calculated to tax the talents of the American regord to the Calitornia land legislation, admittedly furnishing problems calculated to tax the talents of the American negotiators, was read at the Cabinet meeting to-day, and later those two substitutes to Mysa the subtlett line and the cabinet meeting to-day, and later those two substitutes of the American negotiators, was read at the Cabinet meeting to-day, and later those two substitutes and the cabinet meeting to-day, and later those two colored to which the process of the country of the capital to far substitute of the process of the country and sure that Mr. Gultrie will be paid to the process of the country was the subtlett for th

Wilson Sends Letter.

In a letter to the committee in charge of the dinner, President Wilson expressed deep regret that it was im-possible for him to attend the function in honor of Mr. Guthrie, "whom I have been so fortunate as to induce to rep-

"It is very pleasing to me," con-nued the President, "to know that sentative of Japan, is to be present at the banquet. Our relations with him here have been so delightful and our respect for him has been so sincere, that I am glad to feel that we sending a man of like quality to statement that the treaty had been directly violated. Touching the point that the right of SENATORS WANT ment, although it hardly will be seriously entertained by any court.

They point out that the California act provided "due process of law" for depriving aliens of property, and sugested that the words "equal protection of the laws" used in the amendment referred to persons and not to property.

Claims Reiterated.

Tokyo, Japan, June 6.—The rejoinder of Japan to the United States was wrong in its attitude in the tolls matter, it should take the "manly" stand and openly adment referred to persons and not to property.

Senator Lewis counselled moderation. Senator Borah took the stand that if the United States was wrong in its attitude in the tolls matter, it should take the "manly" stand and openly adment referred to persons and not to property.

Claims Reiterated.

Tokyo, Japan, June 6.—The rejoinder of Japan to the United States' note on the subject of the California alien land ownership legislation reiterates that the land bill passed by the California the land bill passed by the California land legislature violates the spirit of the Japanese-American treaty by discriminating against a friendly power.

It points out that even if the question is an economic one, it enters the domain of international relations, and, therefore, becomes a political question.

They point out that the California alien land ownership legislation reiterates that the land bill passed by the California lating against a friendly power.

It points out that even if the question of the session that if the United States was wrong in its attitude in the tolok matter, it should take the "manly" stand and openly admit tis mistake. Senator Newlands was against compulsory arbitration, but favored the "persuasive sort."

Senator Lewis Calendary for the United States was wrong in its attitude in the tolls matter, it should take the "manly" stand and openly addition of the sensitor works defended the alien land law of his State, and announced his distribution of the session that if the action of the session that if the united States would the be boun his farewell appearance on the English stage. The play chosen was "Hamlet," and, appropriately enough, the last Expressed Disappointment When Husband Falled to Kiss Her Good-By.

NEVER TO APPEAR

city of Richmond.

Are You Going Away?

THE TIMES-DISPATCH

wishes you to always be well informed as to subjects of general interest, and particularly those of our own us have your destination, and we will send The Times-Dispatch without extra charge.

If you are contemplating a journey, let

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Dannemora. N. Y., June 6.—Reynolds Forsbrey, considered one of the most and several long ladders, with which he planned to scale the prison walls.

Margaret Hyan, the convict's sweetheart, was hiding in the mountains six miles from the prison. In her retreat and sincerely appreciative of the greatness and the progress of the country to which he goes.

"I am sure that Mr. Guthrie will meet the most exacting requirements of his great office, and that the delightful occasion in which we participate to-night may be regarded as fitty representing the amicable international relations which it will be the pleasure of these two gentlemen to maintain and strengthen."

Early in the dinner, Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer and Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson, paid tributes to the new ambassadors, and among letters of regret was that of President Wilson.

Ambassador Guthrie will make his excitement. His pale who head at the control of the stop in which is pale who head at the control of the stop in which is pale who head at the control of the stop in which is pale who head at the control of the stop in which is pale who head at the control of the stop in which is pale who head at the control of the stop in which is pale who head at the control of the party planned to reach the Canadian boundary, less than sixteen miles from the prison. In her retreat the miles from the prison. In her retreat the she had new clothes for Forsbrey and the pale and a number of fast horses the pale and warden Harry M. Kaiser said tonight that Forsbrey had fashioned a bomb out of two tin cups. This was so arranged that gas would be generated and escape to a small chamber, in which a cap with a fuse attached was to be placed. With this bomb Forsbrey planned to blow up the shop in which he worked and to escape during the excitement. His pals who had aided him in the construction of the bomb and ladders worked in the tin shop near-by, and it was believed they would be able to elude the guards following the explosion.

"The finding of the ladders in the basement where they had been hidden led to the entire plot being uncovered." I said Warden Kaiser. "I found this out a on April 11, but have thought it best

RECEIVE THEIR DIPLOMAS

Graduates at Naval Academy Addressed by Secretary Daniela.

Annapolis, Md., June 6.—In the presence of a throng of people from every section of the country, the last of the official functions of "June week" at the Naval Academy was held to-day, when the graduates, after being addressed by United States Senator Smith, of Maryland, and Secretary of the Navy Daniels, received their diplomas. The young men will immediately be commissioned as ensigns.

Secretary Daniels, who distributed the diplomas, urged upon the graduates the need of clean living, sobriety and temperance. He struck, hard at hazing and paid a tribute to "the men behind the guns."

"You will command men," he said, "who are active, and like you abreast of their times; a body of young men, who in ambition to serve their country are every whit your equals. They have simply been by circumstances denied the opportunities which this country has given you."

PLANS GO AWRY

Police Prevent Militants From Carrying Out Demonstration.
London June 6.—Militant Suffragettes to-day almost succeeded in interrupting the deliberations of the peace conference between the delegates of the Balkan allies and Turkey by organizing a demonstration outside of St. James Palace during the session.
The Women's Freedom League called a meeting "to protest against the government's supposition that it was able houses which are inseparable freal estate.

So declares that the new bill the fourteenth amendment to ted States Constitution requir-State to grant equal protecter its laws to all persons withers in the Japanese-American rership controversy is unabated a. Several mass-messilp controvers in the description to descript the search of the supposition that it was applied to secure abroad while unable to secure pence

NEVER TO APPEAR

IN LONDON AGAIN
Sposition, go not the it feels be participated by the customs authorities of a consignment of 500 rifes and bayoners on board a steamer from Liverpool. The arms were addressed to Baron Farnham, an Irish peer, at his county seat, Farnham, County Cavan.

Bryan's arbitra
Forbes-Robertson Receives Magnificent Ovation at Last Performance of England.

[Special Cable to the Times-Dispatch.]

London, June 6.—Sir Johnson Forbes-Robertson received a magnificent ovation to-night when the curtain fell on his farewell appearance on the English states.

BRIDE OF ONE WORKS.

BRIDE OF ONE WORKS.

Consignment of 500 Riffes Seized by Government.

Sugainst the former head of the department by tabulating the changes against the found to be absolutely necessary. Under the effective of the partment by tabulating the changes against the former head of the department of 500 rifles and bayoners of a consignment of 500 rifles and bayoners of the partment by tabulating the changes against the former head of the department of 500 rifles and bayoners of a consignment of 500 rifles and bayoners of the postal service."

The conditions existing at that time were caused, he says, by:

(1) The undue stress placed by the found to be absolutely necessary. Under the efficiency of the postal service."

The conditions existing at that time were caused, he says, by:

(1) The undue stress placed by the found to be absolutely necessary. In the condition of the leavent by the postal service."

The conditions existing at that time were caused, he says, by:

(1) The undue stress placed by the found to be absolutely necessary. In the condition of the leavent by the partment by tabulating the changes against the found to be absolutely necessary. In the condition of the leavent by tabulating the changes against the found to be absolutely necessary. In the condition existing a condition to a condition existing a condition to a condition to a condition to a condition

BRIDE OF ONE MONTH ENDS LIFE.

Nearly 4,000 people managed to crowd into the Drury Lane Theatre and as many more were turned away from the doors. The gross receipts for the night were $7,500.

Sir Johnson made a farewell speech which lasted twenty minutes, and just previous to this dozens of floral tributes were handed over the footlights. Perhaps the greatest hit in his speech was the announcement that it was not Gortrude Elliot's intention to retire from the stage. The audience of the play of the footlights and the stage of the audience of the stage. The audience of the play of the footlights are the stage. The audience of the play of the footlights are the stage. The audience of the play of the footlights are the stage.

was the announcement that it was not Gortrude Elliot's intention to retire from the stage. The audience thundered its applause.

"That is the sweetest music possible appreciation and encouragement"

"Big Tim" Goes Abroad.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, June 6.—"Big Tim" Sullivan. The van, completely recovered, his friends declare, from the recent illness, will office the rates of postage on Sunday editions of daily newspapers were reduced from 1 cent for four ounces to 1 cent for a pound or a fraction thereof. In connection with the new parcel post, nearly 1,000 additional clerks his brother, Patrick J. Sullivan. The word of his intended departure was of the Sullivan Club, and a large delegation of daily newspapers were reduced from 1 cent for four ounces to 1 cent for a pound or a fraction thereof. In connection with the new parcel post, nearly 1,000 additional clerks have been appointed to take care of the increased business, and increased car space costing $267,000 has been provided. Mr. Burleson also claims that the spation of his followers left for Boston to see him off.

GIVES CHALLENGE TO GREAT BRITAIN

Desperate Criminal Plans to Blow Dr. Graves Says Government Cannot Disprove His Statements.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, June 6 .- A challenge to Forsbrey, considered one of the most dangerous criminals alive, attempted last April to escape from the Clinton prison, where he is serving a life sentence for murder, by blowing up a workshop with a gasolene bomb. The story did not become public until tonight.

With the aid of two confederates Forsbrey had constructed the bomb and several long ladders, with which he planned to scale the prison walls. Margaret Ryan, the convict's sweet-of Graves who was sent to Barinny last June for eighteen months. And Mr. McKinnon Wood, the secretary for Scotland, and Mr. Reginald McKenna, both of whom signed the order for my of Graves who was sent to Barlinny

"As to the circumstances concerning my release." he said, "they were these. I would like to say here that during all my stay in Barlinny, I never received anything but gentlemanly said Warden Kaiser. "I found this out on April 11, but have thought it best to keep the matter quiet until to-night. Forsbrey has been placed in solitary confinement in what is known as a screened cell, one with a fine meshed steel screen covering all openings, so that nothing may be passed to him through the bars."

The Ryan girl is under surveillance was receiving, and comparing it with The Ryan girl is under surveillance y State detectives.

Forsbrey made a sensational escape om the Tombs in New York on September 2, 1912. He was the leader of tember 2, 1912. He was the leader of a large gang to which the police charge a long list of burglaries and hold-ups. He is charged with two murders and has been convicted of one. He was a plumber, and, although he had little or no schooling, he was noted for cunning and brilliancy in executing his crimes.

RECEIVE THEIR DIPLOMAS going to do when I got out, and I re-plied that I would go back to Ger-many. He wanted to know if I would resume my work, and I told him yes, if Germany had any use for me."
"Would you work for Great Britain?"

"If you made it worth my while. Heavy Concrete Work Compite.

Panama, June 6.—It is officially announced that all the heavy concrete work of the six locks of the Panama Canal has been completed. The lower guard gates at Gatun and Pedro Miguel and the upper guard gates at Miradores will be closed as soon as possible after June 15, the plan being to allow Lake Gatun to fill. The lake will be an artificial one of 110 square miles. Maurice L. Thatcher has forwarded to Washington his resignation as governor of the Canal Zone. It is to be effective at the expiration of his vation leave of absence.

charieston, S. C., June 6.—Attempts identity G. H. Hill and Henry Eckstorm robbers of the Atlantic Coast Line mall Hardevile in December, 1911, were made the government

UP HIS CHARGES V. V.'s Eyes

sued to-day, backs up his charges business brought by the parcel post.

To improve the situation, the new administration has, in the ninety days it has been in, appointed 1,000 additional clerks and 500 city letter-carriers, nominated 1,500 new postmasters of the procedure of the control of the ters of the presidential grade to the Senate and appointed 1,700 of the fourth grade from civil service examinations and inspectors' reports and es-tablished 203 rural routes, serving 200,-000 people.

With a view to expediting the de-livery of mail, all back stamping of ordinary mail matter has been ordered At the ordinary mail matter has been ordered discontinued. A further economy to the public was effected when, by an arrangement with the Canadian post-office, the rates of postage on Sunday editions of daily newspapers were reduced from 1 cent for four ounces to 1 cent for a pound or a fraction thereof cel post stamps, $50,000 annually.

Bernhardt Back in Paris.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, June 6.—Sarah Bernhardt arrived in Paris to-day and was apparently not in the least fatigued by her long and strenuous tour of America. She held an impromptu reception and greeted many of her friends. Following dinner she drove to her own the atre, where she attended a performance of "Le Bossu." Madame Bernhardt speaks with enthusiasm of her recent tour, and says that whenever she visits America the number of French teachers in the country seems to have doubled and the number of French books sold tripled.

JACOB H. SCHIFF RETURNS.

Expresses Optimistic View of Present
"Economic Rendjustment."
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, June 6.—Jacob H. Schiff, the banker, arrived to-day on the Mauretania, after a four-months' trip in Europe. He expressed an optimistic view of the "economic readjustment" through which the United States is passing, and declared the unsettled conditions and general depression to be but temporary. be but temporary "If the legislation for the prudent | Phone County 3204,

The Spacious Veranda and

The Summer House

(in the garden) will be all the more inviting and enjoyable if you carry your Victrola along. If you have one, we'll pack and ship it. If you want one, we'll furnish it, together with latest Records.

Prices, $15.00 to $200.00.

duction of the tariff, we shall escape serious revulsion, and shall become even stronger financially and commersaid Mr. Schiff. "For the time being the entire world is suffering from excessive demands upon capital, and the supply falls far short of the demand. The awakening of China, the Balkan war and the large armaments being made in Europe are the chief demands."

875,000 FOR GENERAL ARMORY.

Norfolk Council Adheres to Its Previous

Norfolk Council Adheres to Its Previous Action.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Norfolk, Va., June 6.—Councilman Legge, of Monroe Ward, to-night introduced an ordinance prohibiting contractors who employ city officials from bidding on city work. Mr. Legge was recently investigated for his connection with a concern furnishing pipe to the city, but was exonorated.

The Council appropriated $5,000 to defray the expenses of working jail prisoners on public highways. An ordinance appropriating $27,000 for an armory for the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues was defeated. The Council adhered to its previous action appropriating $75,000 for a general armory for all State troops, the building to be erected on the old high school site in Brambleton.

DEATH LIST GROWS.

Engineer of Ill-Fated Train Succumbs to His Injuries.
Sanford, N. C., June 6.—The total number of deaths as a result of mixed freight and passenger train No. 10, of the Raleigh, Charlotte and Southern killed at the time of the accident, while George Blalock, a brother of Engineer Blalock, died here Wednesday after-

THE AUTHOR OF "QUEED" IS NOW READY AT ALL BOOK STORES.

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau of New York Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item hich appeared concerning the man. The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

especial man.

The history ends just after election, and the 20,642 newspaper items found include everything, from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

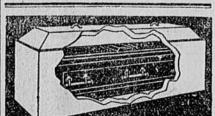

serted amount to 153.252.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newapaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrelle Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrelle, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed.

known that a letter simply addressed "Burrelle, New York," will reach him with no delay. (Advertisement)

Ask you, undertaker. Price, $50,00 Write for booklet. Reinterring a spe-

Cement Burial Vault Co. OF RICHMOND, INC., County 3204, P. O. Box 9324

George T. Hogg

CALL ON US TODAY

Prescriptions One of the prime requisites in filling a prescription, is CARE. Care in using the exact ingredients called for, care in weighing, measuring and mixing, care in labeling and writing the directions. All these items receive our most careful attention. Pure Drugs? Yes! Of course! LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES

FOR TIME AND MATERIAL USED Por over 50 years, the use of Cardui has been steadily increasing, in the treatment of women's ailments.

CARDU

The Woman's Tonic contains no dangerous minerals and has no bad after-effects. Its sale is regular and steady, showing that it gives satisfaction to those who use it. Try it.